Perspectives for 2020

Rio Olesky's Annual Astrological Evening

This year could bring profound changes and transformations affecting everything from governments to corporations to individual people. We will all be challenged to be authentic, accountable and awake. The planetary alignments for the year challenge us as well as offering energetic ways of responding to those tests.

In this year's talk, Rio will provide perspectives about these issues:

The Saturn-Pluto-Jupiter conjunction
The significance of Jupiter and Saturn entering Aquarius
The ongoing dynamic of Uranus in Taurus
Venus and Mars transiting retrograde
How these transits portend the Aquarian Age

Join Rio as he delineates these and other important energy patterns. The focus of the talk will be on understanding the nature of these influences and learning how to work with them to enhance personal growth and consciousness development. He will also discuss how the transits could affect us politically, economically and globally.
